

Notes: Able to access this area, which is pretty much representative of back country conditions, because of explosives work done two days prior.